J. P. McDonough, Justice of the Peace From Lee Ward, Is Out for Re-Election in the General Election on November 8, 1921.

on November 8, 1921.

To My Friends and the Voters of Lee Ward:
Having been the choice of the voters of Lee Ward in the primary on August 2, 1921, but through a contest brought in the name of it. It. Hawks and heard by the Hon. Carter R, Secti my nomination as one of the three nominees was set askie as undue, on the grounds that I spent more money than the Primary Election Laws allowed. In Judge Scott's opinion he so Stated that the money was spent for law-rid purposes and without any intention of violating the law, but whatever the intention may have been it was a violation of the Primary Election Law and was grounds for setting the nomination asiae, but did not disqualify me from running in the General Election on the Democrate ticket if the City Central bemocratic Committee Saw fit to allow me to do so or that the committee could name me to full the place. The committee may have been the General Election on the place. The committee may be a strength against me by fit. If Hawks, who was the fifth man, fi, C. Dake, the fourth man on the Democratic ticket. The contest was brought against me by fi. If. Hawks, who was the fifth man, fi, C. Dake, the fourth man on the beact, refusing to take any part in the contest, saying that he was locat and stitished. At the trial it developed that Mr. Hawks was non-insted in the orimary. On the witness stand it was admitted and shown by Mr. Hichards that he had been very active in this matter and that his object was to get me out of office if possible, thinking that he would get the business at the Second Police Station. INDIANS NOT TEETOTALERS BY TRADITION, FACTS SHOW

"Pussyfoot" Johnson's Statement That Inhabitants Learned to Drink by Copying the West Causes Irritation in Calcutta.

India) are tectotalers by tradition and religion and have only tearned to drink by copying the West" has caused some amusement and more irritation in this country, where he arrived last Saturday. An onnce of fact is worth a pound of fiction and the few quotations following rive the hest answer to the assertion of Mr. Pussyfeot.

Writing from Surat in 1672 Streynsham Master says of the inhabitants:

as few of them forbear wine, for those that eat no flesh will gulch abundance of strong drink."

Linschoten at a rather earlier period lamented that the Portuguese soldiers were learning from natives over 200,000,000 as to inculcate a place of the wine of their native land. Writing of liengal carly in the last century Buchanan-Hamilton says: "In no country have I seen so many drunken people walking abroad, and cades past has been the steady sup-

MOON CAR

Engineering Skill of the World

Put this question squarely to yourself: Does any other car embody such an array of proven units? Check up the quality of the Moon unit by unit and see how the question answers itself.

See how each and every one is the product of specialists who have learned to make successfully one thing and to make it a little better than any one else. Make note of them-Continental Red Seal Motor; Delco Starter and Ignition; Timken Axles; Spicer Universal Joints; Brown-Lipe Transmission; Borg & Beck Clutch; Rayfield Carburetor; Exide Battery; Fedders Radiatornickel-silver; Gemmer Steering Gear.

Everything entering into the Moon has been selected with infinite care, tested and proved by Moon engineers with one specific purpose-to make sure that quality goes right straight through every feature. Upon this chassis, embodying the engineering skill of the world, Moon bodies are constructed. Their excellence in finish and every detail reveals that care which can come only from fortyone years' experience in coach work.
